A Needed Improvement.

Now that our new depot is completed and the travel to the city completely shut off from its old route by the depot, a decent road is the want of the times. The main road leading into Salem from grace to the city. In winter when merely of mud, but of water, almost deep enough to swim a horse. The bridges are narrow, contracted, caterrough, and withal a worse road leading to the city cannot be found. the mild gazelle. Life and property will be endangered unless this disgraceful alley is improved.
